

Second Grade Learns About The Presidents

On Inauguration Day, Mrs. Bragg's second-grade class had a combined social studies/math class. The students graphed the ages of all the former presidents to determine the youngest and the oldest president and the most common age when taking office.

